I want to gain an edge
“Clamping a job in wealth management before graduation is a tall order, so I’m excited to find out about the Applied Wealth Management track. Starting a banking career comes with many challenges, and being part of a programme that will prepare me for the corporate world will give me an edge over my peers.”

— Randall Pay, 23, NTU NBS first-year student

I want to raise my game
“In this volatile job market, I want to be job-ready even before graduation. The new Applied Wealth Management track allows me to have a better understanding of the job, thereby raising the level of my professionalism. It will also equip me with the required industry certifications, so that I can hit the ground running and have a head start when I start work.”

— Ryan Lee, 22, NTU NBS first-year student
