

DFS Management Trainee Programme

Discover the pride and excitement of working with luxury brands and superior merchandise with the world's leading travel retailer. Thrive in dynamic business that constantly offers new challenges and development opportunities.

DFS Management Trainee Programme is designed to provide an unparalleled opportunity for early career candidates to learn all aspects of its luxury travel retail business. Successful candidates will have hands-on learning, training and interaction with the management team as well as one-on-one development that includes intensive coaching and mentoring. They will have immediate responsibility and exposure to multiple cross-functional job assignments and high profile strategic projects.

If you have the passion for luxury retail and have graduated from university with a Degree within the last 2 years, please forward your detailed resumes to talent_singapore@dfs.com.

Closing date: Friday, 16 October 2009