President for Term 2009-2010

Mr Dennis Wong Her Her
Managing Director
ST Teleport Pte Ltd

Dennis graduated with a Double Masters (Nanyang and Waseda) from Nanyang MBA in 2008. He had also obtained his Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) from the School of Electrical and Electronic Engineering with NTU in 1996.

As an engineer and appointment holders for companies, Dennis had with him vast management and leadership experience in corporate functions, operations and planning. In addition, he also had more than 14 years of experience in the telecommunications industry. He is currently the Managing Director of ST Teleport Pte Ltd which provides satellite transmission related services such as broadcast transmission, data network and marine and offshore communications. ST Teleport is partly owned by ST Telemedia.

Prior to joining ST Teleport, Dennis was the General Manager for Strategic Planning for Mitsubishi Electric Asia Pte Ltd. His scope of works includes corporate development, mergers and acquisitions and new business / office setup. Prior to that, he was also the General Manager for Mobile Communications and Head of India Operations for the company.

Dennis also had the experience with an overseas posting with AIS, the biggest mobile operator in Thailand, as its Planning Consultant while he was with Singapore Telecommunications. He had overseen the major cellular network migration from analogue to digital, quadrupling capacity expansions and resource optimization during his tenure.

During his undergrad internship with Motorola Research and Development team, Dennis had received the inaugurated Industrial Attachment Award for his outstanding work. Subsequently he was put on an inaugurated Management Trainee Programme known as the Career Orientation Programme.

With his people-oriented leadership style and enthusiasm, Dennis hopes to use his experience to create a new path and purpose for the Nanyang MBA Alumni Association. Corresponding to the raising ranking of the Nanyang MBA, he aims to provide the Association with continuous and complimentary values, both in business and personal aspects, to the alumni and new participants alike.
