

S'PORE ROUNDUP

NTU CHIPS IN

Nanyang Technological University's (NTU) alumni has donated 1 million yuan ($210,560) to rebuild a Sichuan school. Shuangdong Primary School was wrecked by the earthquake in May last year.

NTU's Executive Master in Business Administration alumni pooled their resources to set up the "Nanyang Love and Care Fund for Education". Besides financial support, the fund will invest in manpower to improve the development and teaching standards of what has since been re-named the Shuangdong Nanyang Primary School. When complete, it will accommodate 540 students, some 200 more than before. ESTHER NG